FAST Foundation for Advancing Security Talent

"The future of security isn't defined by technology—it's defined by the people who build, deploy, and reimagine what is possible. That's why we invest in FAST."

- Kyle Gordon, EVP of Global Revenue and Customer Experience, AMAG Technology

"We believe the strongest investment we can make is in people. That's why we support FAST. Every contribution helps prepare technicians with the skills and experience they'll need to tackle tomorrow's challenges and keep our industry moving forward."

- Ryan Kaltenbaugh, Head of Global Sales, Security, M.C. Dean

"Joining FAST has allowed me to help so many people across the industry. The real legacy we leave lies in the talent we develop and the future we shape together."

- Stephanie Haldane, Vice President, End User Business Development, HID
